WEDDING DOCUMENTATION DAYS AT PILGRIM HALL MUSEUM
SEPTEMBER 1ST & 25TH, 2016
10 AM-3 PM

What do you wear on the most important day of your life? Pilgrim Hall Museum is exploring the intriguing evolution of Plymouth area wedding styles over nearly four centuries, and we are looking for your help!

Wedding Documentation days will be held on Thursday, September 1st and Sunday, September 25th from 10 am to 3 pm in the museum's Steinway Library. Members of the public are invited to bring in photographs and other materials of any Plymouth area wedding – whether from their grandparents' day or today - to be examined by the museum's archival team, documented, and digitized. Many of these images will be included in our upcoming 2017 exhibition, “Wedding 396: Four Centuries of Wedding Fashion from the First Plymouth Colony Marriage in 1621 to the Present,” to be on display February through August. The exhibit centers on a dazzling display of vintage and antique wedding gowns reflecting the full range of New England's diversity, with multimedia displays of real-life wedding images from the past 150 years. Residents of Plymouth and surrounding towns are encouraged to participate in this new historical look at wedding history on the South Shore.
